About the Speakers

Rev. David Cook served as principal of and Bible College for 26 years. He now ministers at the Chinese Presbyterian church in Sydney for 6 months each year and spends the other 6 months in itinerant ministry throughout the world. A regular speaker at conventions in Australia and overseas, David is no stranger to Malaysia, having spoken at a number of preaching conferences and KVBC Bible conferences around the country since 1997. David has authored and contributed to several books on preaching. Prior to studying for the ministry, David worked in the Economic Research Department of the Reserve Bank of Australia. He has been married to Maxine for 40 years. They have 5 adult children and 12 grandchildren.

Rev. Tan Kay Hoe serves as Ministry Director for KVBC Trust, an organisation that has been working with churches to encourage godliness through faithful preaching of God's Word since 1997. Having previously trained and worked as an engineer, Kay Hoe is now a minister with the Presbyterian Church in Malaysia. He is married to Chui Chui, and they are parents to a budding teenage son.

About the Organisers

The KVBC Trust (formerly known as the Kuala Lumpur Christian Conference) is best known for organising the annual Klang Valley Bible Conference (KVBC) and the associated Expository Preaching Seminars (EPS). The ministry has now expanded to Ipoh (Ipoh Bible Conference and Expository Preaching Seminars) and Penang (Penang Bible Conference and Expository Preaching Seminars).

The KVBC Trust was formed in 1997 with a single purpose: to encourage godliness through expository Bible teaching.

In 1999, the KVBC Trust together with Evangel Book Centre, organised the first Klang Valley Bible Conference (KVBC). This conference has since become an annual event with preachers such as Don Carson, David Cook, David Jackman, Bryan Chappel, Mike Raiter and John Woodhouse expounding God's Word. Expository Preaching Seminars (EPS), aimed at pastors, preachers and teachers, have been organised in conjunction with KVBC since 2001. Each year, EPS seeks to encourage and strengthen Christian leaders in an aspect of expository preaching.

In 2009, we held our first Expository Preaching Seminars in Ipoh and Penang. In 2010, the Penang Bible Conference was launched and in 2011, the first Ipoh Bible Conference was launched.

The mission of Equip is to prepare Christians for works of Gospel-centred ministry, in partnership with local churches, through Biblical, theological and ministry skills training.

Theological Training: Moore Distance Education Course

Equip is the agent in West Malaysia for the External Studies Department of Moore Theological College in Sydney. The Distance Education Course (previously known as the Certificate in Theology), offered by Moore Theological College, is a well-established distance education course used throughout the world. It is renowned for its ability to help students engage with the Bible, theology and Church History. The course is designed to be flexible, allowing students to study individually or in a group and at their own pace, sitting for an exam at the end of the term. Equip recommends study in groups and provides groups and teachers/facilitators to help you get the most out of the course.

Who Can Do The Course?

Anyone who wishes to study and understand God's word better.

Introducing the Course in your church

To introduce this course in your church, please contact us (info@equip.org.my) for more details. We can also run a presentation together with a Q/A session for your pastor, board, church council or congregation upon request.

Modules on Offer

Term 2 (June 2015 to Aug 2015) registration is now open.

Bible Overview is the first module in the Distance Education course. It provides an overview of the entire Bible, plus helpful hints on how to understand its main themes. It helps students to see how the whole Bible fits together and points to Jesus. This module should be completed first before taking any other modules.

We run 10 classes for Bible Overview on Tuesday evenings (8pm to 10pm) in a church in KL, starting from 2 June 2015 and on Saturday mornings (10am to 12pm) in a church in Kota Damansara, starting from 13 June 2015.

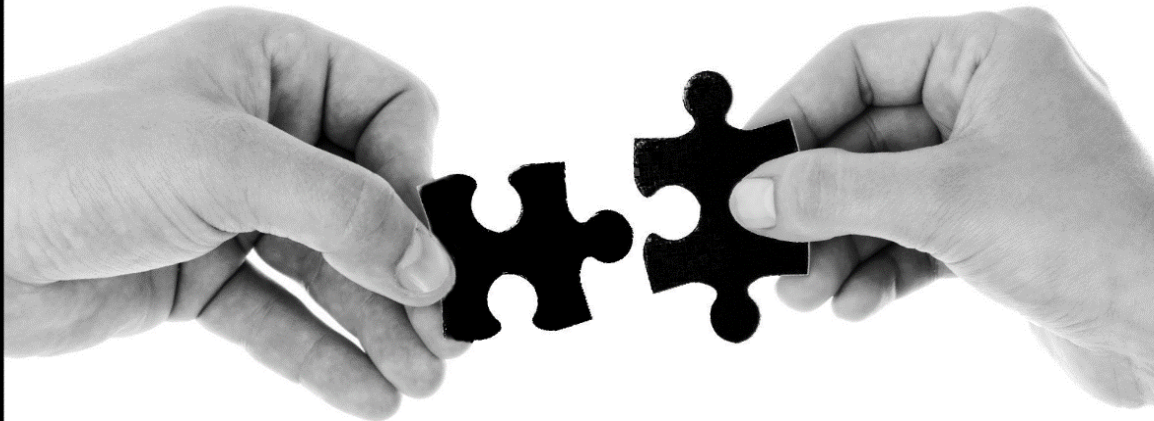

To register, visit our website: www.equip.org.my

Bible Overview

Do you want to get to know God better by having a deeper understanding of His Word?

Would you like to be better equipped to rightly handle the Word of Truth?

Do you want to see how the whole Bible fits together and points to Jesus?

Join us for this ten week course to learn together about how the many different pieces of the Bible all fit together and point to Jesus. Through talks, small group discussions and questions we will explore God's Word to better understand the big picture.

Kuala Lumpur - St Mary's Anglican Cathedral. Tuesdays 8pm to 10pm beginning 2nd June

Petaling Jaya - Agape Chapel, Saturdays 10am to 12pm beginning 13 June.

Ministry Skills Training: Biblical Counselling

Equip is partnering with the Christian Counselling & Educational Foundation (CCEF), to prepare Christians for works of ministry. Through this partnership, CCEF's online courses on biblical counselling are now available to Malaysian students at a discounted rate. The classes offer a biblical foundation for understanding God, understanding ourselves, and understanding others--a valuable tool for anyone involved in ministry or counseling.

Courses are taught online using engaging video and audio resources presented by CCEF Faculty on their online classrooms, accessible from anywhere in the world with an internet connection. Weekly assignments and readings together with an online student forum allow participants to have interactive online communities as they study. In addition students have an instructor available online to grade papers and support them through the course.

Who Can Take The Course?

Anyone who wants to be better equipped to minister to those around them. Current students include pastors, elders, youth workers, small group leaders, doctors, lay people who want to be better equipped to help friends, those who will go on to be professional counselors and many others.

A range of counselling subjects are offered including Dynamics of Biblical Change, Helping Relationships, Counseling in the Local Church, Marriage Counseling, Theology and Secular Psychology, Human Personality and Biblical Interpretation.

These and other classes are offered three times per year (January, May, and September).

How Do I Get More Information Or Sign Up?

For more information on the course visit www.ccef.org, email Janet Nygren (CCEF's Kuala Lumpur representative) at janetnygren@gmail.com or info@equip.org.my.
